Writing about War

Fulfills Communication/Writing & Humanities Exploration

Designed to help students develop and refine their reading, writing, and communication skills by examining and articulating their perspectives of war. Students will study the work of established authors and write multiple genres, including nonfiction, fiction, and analysis. Open to all students, but men and women in uniform and veterans are encouraged to enroll. Students strongly advised to take WRTG 2010 or equivalent prior to this course.

“A true war story, if truly told, makes the stomach believe.”
“And in the end, of course, a true war story is never about war.”
-- Tim O'Brien, from The Things They Carried
