

Senior Seminar

WRTG 5990 provides students a capstone experience as they finish their Writing & Rhetoric Studies (WRS) major and prepare to move onto the next stage of their education or career. To prepare for this next stage, students will complete a professional communication sequence. Students will also have the opportunity to listen to and engage with scholars and professionals as they present over their research interests or line of work with regard to writing and/or rhetoric. In addition, students will plan and execute a substantive semester-long rhetorical project, exploring topics, issues, or problems situated in the workplace, civic setting, or artistic or literary context. To conclude the capstone experience, the course will ask students to bring together aspects of their previous courses and their experiences in those courses and showcase learning through individual portfolios.

All WRS majors must take this course.
