HISTORIES & THEORIES OF RHETORIC

Fall 2022 TuTh 9:10am - 10:30am

This course offers a contextualized overview of rhetorical theories and practices across temporal-spatial boundaries and develops a much-needed dialogue between different rhetorical traditions. Informed by readings in historical, comparative, cultural, postcolonial, and decolonial studies, the course provides students with the background, disciplinary histories, and foundational readings in pivotal theoretical debates and situated practices over language, culture, power, and political subjectivity.

Required Course for Major & Minor

Students must take WRTG 2010 or equivalent prior to taking this course.
