

Writing As Social Practice

WRTG 3870

REQUIRED COURSE FOR
WRS MAJOR/MINOR

COMMUNITY ENGAGED LEARNING (CEL)

In this course, students are introduced to key theories of writing. Emphasis is placed on the cultural, social, and rhetorical practices that have given rise to and shape writing processes, documents, and ultimately writers themselves. Through reading and discussing contemporary writing studies scholarship and engaging in research, creative, and community projects students will encounter various forms of writing, and theories that consider the impact of material and social factors, such as education on writing systems, and theories that consider the writer/reader relationship that is established through writing.

*Students must take WRTG 2010 or equivalent
before taking this course*
