

Histories and Theories of Rhetoric

WRTG 3875

REQUIRED COURSE FOR WRS MAJOR/MINOR

This course offers a contextualized overview of rhetorical theories and practices across temporal-spatial boundaries and develops a much-needed dialogue between different rhetorical traditions. Informed by readings in historical, comparative, cultural, postcolonial, and decolonial studies, the course provides students with the background, disciplinary histories, and foundational readings in pivotal theoretical debates and situated practices over language, culture, power, and political subjectivity.

Students must take WRTG 2010 or equivalent before taking this course

SPRING 2023

MoWe | 1:25pm—2:45pm

Taught by LUMING MAO

DEPARTMENT OF WRITING & RHETORIC STUDIES
THE UNIVERSITY OF UTAH